PACE Review Board

Maya Gibbs

The PACE Review Board—a group of distinguished experts from research institutions, industry associations, and the NGO community—has provided invaluable insights to shape our analysis and advocacy. Their perspectives illuminate key findings from the research, highlight innovative solutions to deployment challenges, and connect this work to broader efforts across the clean energy landscape.

The Review Board Members are the following:

- Alex Breckel, Senior Director of Programs, Clean Tomorrow
- Brad Townsend, Vice President for Policy and Outreach, C2ES
- Houtan Moaveni, Vice President, Grid Strategies
- Nidhi Thakar, Senior Vice President of Policy, CEBA

- Shannon Angielski, President, Clean Hydrogen Future Coalition

Linked below, you'll find Review Board member's reflections on Third Way's PACE research findings, offering their takeaways on the research and its implications for policymakers, industry leaders, and advocates driving the clean energy transition.
